Robi is the Israeli spokesperson and Director of International Relations for the Parents Circle - Families Forum (PCFF), a group of 600 Israeli and Palestinian families who have lost close family members to the conflict and who work together for reconciliation and a just resolution to the conflict. Robi’s son, David, was killed by a Palestinian sniper in March of 2002 while he was guarding a checkpoint near a settlement during his army reserve service. Since becoming active in the Parents Circle, Robi has spoken around the world, including to thousands of Israelis and Palestinians, to demand that reconciliation be a part of any peace agreement. Robi was named as a 2015 Woman of Impact by Women in the World. In 2014, Robi was selected by the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice as one of four Women PeaceMakers. She is the protagonist featured in the documentary, One Day after Peace. She regularly contributes to The Forward and Huffington Post, and has spoken at various Women in the World events, Royal Albert Hall with Marcus Mumford, and European, Spanish and Canadian Parliaments.

Speaking Topics

- Transformation from hate to reconciliation
- Understanding one’s personal narrative
- What do you mean when you say you forgive?
- Creative leadership
- The Parents Circle: Bereaved Palestinians and Israelis working together for reconciliation

To book Robi Damelin for your event, visit peaceisloud.org or email johna@peaceisloud.org

To learn more about Peace is Loud and other empowering women peacebuilders, visit us at: WWW.PEACEISLOUD.ORG