PEACE

IS LOUD

ENDING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN NEEDS DEEP CULTURE CHANGE. AND CULTURE CHANGE NEEDS ALL OF US TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR OUR OWN ATTITUDES TOWARD WOMEN AND GENDER.

-MALLIKA DUTT

CULTURE CHANGE INNOVATOR & MULTIMEDIA STORYTELLER

Mallika Dutt has worked for three decades to reinvent the delivery of social and cultural change, creating a space for human rights in the public dialogue and inspiring millions of individuals to challenge the deeply entrenched norms and attitudes that fuel discrimination against women and girls.

Dutt is committed to demonstrating how all of us, including and especially men, have a role to play in ending gender-based discrimination and violence. She approaches this work from a deeply humanist form of spirituality focusing on compassion, empathy and bridging connections. Dutt is a 2016 recipient of the Skoll Award for Social Entrepreneurship.

In 2000, she founded global human rights organization Breakthrough, which aims to build a world in which violence against women and girls is unacceptable and all beings can thrive. Under her leadership, Breakthrough's multimedia campaigns, community mobilization, agenda-setting, and leadership training equip men and women worldwide to challenge the status quo and take bold action for the dignity, equality, and justice of all.
